

YOU COULD BE A LIFE SAVER

Organ
Donation

The law around organ donation is changing in spring 2023.

From spring 2023, the organ donation system will become an opt-out system. 'Daithí's Law' means in the event that organ donation is a possibility after you die, unless you choose to opt out, or are in an excluded group, you will be considered as a potential organ donor.

Find out more at:
organdonationni.info

